NESAA Beneficiary of Animal Communication Afternoon in Mashpee on November 27th

Osterville, Mass, November 14, 2011 – Kendra Bond will host an afternoon on Animal Communication at the Sanctuary in Mashpee on November 27th, 2011 from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. The Sanctuary is located at 17 D Trinity Place, Route 28, Mashpee. The New England Society for Abandoned Animals will be the beneficiary as 10% of the proceeds of the afternoon will go to support NESAA's programs.

Kendra Bond is an International Animal Communicator and Professional Psychic. She will teach the attendees a technique that will assist them in connecting deeper with their animal friends. Participants should bring a photocopy on white paper of a picture of an animal they know, with questions written on the back. Cost of the afternoon event is $35, payable at the door. The New England Society for Abandoned Animals, a charitable 501 (c) (3) organization, registered with the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office, has the following mission: To advocate, protect and rescue, abandoned and abused animals using a proactive, humane approach. It is committed to its "no kill" programs, increasing community awareness and creating progressive changes in animal welfare.

NESAA is always looking for adoption parents, foster parents and for volunteers to support its activities as well as for its no-kill Shelter and Education Center in Centerville. The shelter typically has about 50-100 cats and kittens in its care but at the moment, is caring for almost 200 cats and kittens.

The shelter is always looking for cat food, litter, bleach, Windex, Clorox clean-up, paper towels, beach size towels and trash bags.

For more information about NESAA, about volunteering, becoming foster or adoption parents, or to make a donation, contact the New England Society for Abandoned Animals, PO Box 1041, Osterville, MA 02655, donate online at www.nesaa.org or call (508) 771-7800.
